

Prior to the ban I had multiple unwanted phone solicitations at all hours of the day. I work rotating shifts, so there is no good time to be called. If I need the goods or services that are being peddled, I will seek them out. Please do not allow the harrasement to begin again.